Information You’ll Need to Get Started

To download your transactions with Quicken, you must have Internet access. In addition, to complete setting up your Quicken accounts with transaction download you will need to log into the Rayne State Bank Web site.

This guide will show you how to setup and download your accounts. For step-by-step help with an online task, choose Learn About Downloading Transactions from the Quicken Help menu.

Important: First, get the latest program updates!

To get the latest directory of participating financial institutions and program updates click Update on your Quicken toolbar. In the dialog, click Update Now, Quicken will automatically check for available updates. When this download process is complete, exit and restart Quicken.

Special note to former QIF Import users

Web Connect offers superior download capability. You will enjoy an easier, and more accurate download, without having to import and find your file, worry about duplicates, or even manually launch Quicken! You can convert your existing Quicken account to download via Web Connect. If your financial institution offers multiple download options on the Web site, be sure to select .QFX Web Connect – not the older .QIF file format.

It’s easy to switch from QIF, simply follow the steps in the next section.

Set up a Quicken Account and Download Transactions for the First Time

The following steps explain how to activate your existing Quicken account(s) or create one or more new Quicken accounts for Web Connect online access.

- Step 1 Log into the Rayne State Bank website. Once you have logged in to the website, choose Accounts then History. From The drop down list click on the desired account. Click the download button. Enter the date range you would like to download and choose Web-Connect Quicken(R). Your screen will look like the example below.

The screenshot shows a web form titled "Download Account History" with a red header. It contains the following fields and controls:

- Account: A dropdown menu currently showing "- Personal Chk".
- Posted: Two date input fields with values "07/10/2005" and "07/14/2005".
- Download Format: A dropdown menu currently showing "Web-Connect Quicken(R)".
- Download: A blue button at the bottom right.

- Step 2 When you click the Download button, Quicken displays the following dialog box.

- Step 3 Click the Use an Existing Quicken account and select an account that you manually enter transactions or perform QIF imports. Or, click the Create a new Quicken account radio button and type a name for the account, and then click Continue.

The first radio button, Use an Existing Quicken account lets you download into an account that you manually enter transactions or perform QIF imports

Note: You only need to select the account for this first download. After the account is activated for Web Connect account access, future downloads will download to this account automatically.

Step 4 When Quicken confirms that the Web Connect data has been successfully downloaded to Quicken, click OK. Your first download is complete. Refer to the following section to download transactions from now on.

Keeping Your Quicken Accounts Up-to-Date

- Step 1 To download transactions or to send online payments directly from your account register, click Download Transactions located at the bottom of your account register.
- Step 2 Log in to your Financial Institution's Web site and follow the on-screen instructions to complete downloading transactions.

Updating Accounts from the Online Center

The Online Center also lets you easily download transactions to or make payments from the accounts that you have activated for online account services.

Easy Access: From the Online menu, select Online Center.
